

Communion

Adam's Road

On the night Jesus was betrayed
He broke bread, poured a cup of wine and said (1 Cor.
11:23)

To partake remembering Him (1 Cor. 11:24)
And proclaim His death until He comes again (1 Cor.
11:26)

We need to examine ourselves
When we say we are His disciples (1 Cor. 11:28)

I want you, I want you to take
Upon you, upon you His name (Acts 11:26)

This is His body which is for you
Do this in remembrance of Him (Luke 22:19)
For the rest of your days
For the rest of your days, oh

In the Passover there are four cups (Ex. 6:8)
The third one He gives to each of us

And the fourth is the celebration
The cup of the harvest we'll drink with Him (Mark 14:25)

So for now we drink the cup of Blessing
His pierced hands we are remembering (Luke 22:19)

I want you, I want you to take
Upon you, upon you His name (Acts 11:26)

This is His blood which is the New Covenant
Drink this in remembrance of Him (Luke 22:20)
For the rest of your days
For the rest of your days

Jesus took the wine and bread and then He Took up His own cross directly after
We are now to do the same (Luke 9:23)
So we eat and drink and take upon
Ourselves His wondrous name
But we take it in vain

If we say we will go
And then refuse the call (Matt. 21:30)

There should be no dividing among us (1 Cor. 1:10)
We rightly divide the Word of God (2 Tim. 2:15)

I want you, I want you to take
Upon you, upon you His name (Acts 11:26)

This is Communion, His death we proclaim
To the world until He comes again (1 Cor. 11:26)
For the rest of our days
For the rest of our days, oh
For the rest of our days

© 2018 Adam's Road