

Show Me

Adam's Road

Hard to decide what I really need
Give me a day to find a way to be free
I only want to believe in something better than what is in my sight
But every door that I open closes on me before I get inside

I always think I've got it down
Only to find myself turned round
There must be something I can rely on Show me, show me the way to go

Seems that my life is lived day to day
Dwelling on trials, I find it so hard to pray
Yet something tells me to "listen,
Open your heart and see the greater view
If you will only believe me, I will open doors you'll walk right through (John 6:47)

You always think you've got it down
Only to find yourself turned round
I am that someone you can rely on I'll show you, show you the way to go"

I offer up my heart, no better time to start
Would You be my Light and Way today? (John 14:6)

I always thought I had it down
Only to find myself turned round
I found that someone I can rely on
He'll show me, show me the way to go
He'll show me, show me the way to go
