

Lamp To My Feet

Adam's Road

I was living separated from Your guidance
And I thought that I was living in You
I thought that I felt divine reassurance
But I see now how detached that I was from what's true

If I followed one part of the Law then all was bound to me
One fault would sentence me to live away from You (James 2:10; Gal. 3:10)
And You knew that I could never live so perfectly
So You sent Jesus to my rescue

And now Your law is written on my heart, upon my heart (Heb. 10:16)

Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path (Psalm 119:105)
It shines as a guide for me to place myself in Your hands

I know that righteousness is shown by faith in You (Rom. 1:17)
We are not justified by works of the Law (Gal. 2:16)
And now I obey Your word with my love anew
And You forgive all my sins and wrongs (Heb. 10:17-18)

And I've found Your life brings endless joy that flows inside of me

Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path (Psalm 119:105)
It shines as a guide for me to place myself in Your hands

With every step I take, You come closer to me
And when I fall, Your arms span the heavens to catch me

Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path (Psalm 119:105)
It shines as a guide for me to place myself in Your hands

Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path (Psalm 119:105)

It shines as a guide for me to place myself in Your hands

Your Word, oh Your living Word, yeah (Heb. 4:12)
