

Adam's Road

Adam's Road

Couldn't arrange to make everything okay
A moment alone I was weak and lost my way
With no defense, I could never make amends
Heart of stone, He had to break my will to mend (Ezekiel 36:26)

And I feel that I have never fallen so hard
From a height that seemed secure
Start trying harder to follow His Word
I must keep moving to the end (Mark 13:13)

Moving on the gate has closed, my Eden's gone (Gen. 3:23-24)
As I fell, didn't know that I was wrong
Now I know I'll get somewhere on this road
If I will only follow where You show

And I feel that I have never fallen so hard
From a height that seemed secure
I'm trying harder to follow Your Word
I must keep moving to the end (Mark 13:13)

And I thought I'd never get the chance
For You to give me one more try
I've made mistake after mistake my friend
So I can now do what is right

So in review, I did what I had to do
With You here, Lord I know I'll make it through

Now I know that You will always open a door
When any way is closed again
With every step I am loving You more
Growing in faith to the end

And I feel that I have only made it this far, Jesus
Knowing You will hold my hand
Standing in faith I can finally see
Where I belong in the end

© 2008-2011 Adam's Road