

Weak Man Strong

Adam's Road

As we walk through life the path we take can bring us to our knees
In contemplation or frustration felt from trying to be free
From the problems that we cry about but make us say, "So long"
To all our selfishness when Jesus comes replacing cries with songs

You can make a weak man strong (2 Cor. 12:10)
And a bitter man be kind
And lift the burden up (Matt. 11:28, 30)
To ease the worried mind

Why don't we pray to You more when we know You fill our every need
We get so weak sometimes and overlook our faith the little seed (Matt. 17:20)
That sprouts with every trial and pain it bears upon this lowly road
We think it's hard to see but when we make it back to You we'll know

You can make a weak man strong (2 Cor. 12:10)
And broken wings take flight (Isaiah 40:31)
And shine the light of truth
To make our pathway bright (John 8:12)

What was I to do except come running to You?
When I couldn't get away from all the pain
You took me to a higher plain
Only to be united with You
My heart must be true

You can make a weak man strong (2 Cor. 12:10)
And blinded eyes to see (John 9:25)
And fill the empty hole
Of every human need

You can make a weak man strong (2 Cor. 12:10)

And a bitter man be kind
And lift the burden up (Matt. 11:28, 30)
To ease the worried mind

You can make a weak man strong

© 2008-2011 Adam's Road