Verse

B E
Then we make it to Mark where Jesus was tempted in the wilderness
G#m F# E
And then He was moved by a leper and He touched him and healed his sickness
B E
Even though He was tired He fed 5,000 with some fish and loaves
G#m F# E
And then He walked on the water scaring all the disciples, thinking He was a ghost

Pre-Chorus

F# G#m
And He took three of them to a high mountain His clothes turned intensely white
A F#
And He told them again that the Son of Man would suffer much and then die

B E
We are His witnesses He's chosen us
G#m F#
To go out like the four winds of the earth

E B A
That all from North, South, East, and West
E F#
Will come to know that He alone is Lord of all

Bridge

G#m F#
Luke tells us of when Jesus entered Jerusalem
C#m G#m
Knowing full well of the suffering awaiting Him
Ebm7 G#m
He was beaten, blasphemed, stripped, and at The Skull was crucified
C#m F#
The veil of the temple tore in two when He died
E
Three days and nights (He came back alive)
F#
'Cause death was not the end (He lives again)

Verse

B E
In the record of John is where we learn that Jesus is our God
G#m F# E
He was the Word then He came to earth so He could dwell with us

Pre-Chorus

F# G#m
And not every one of the things He's done has been written down
A F#
But these are written so you may believe in Jesus now

Alt. Chorus

B E G#m F# E
We're His witnesses chosen to go out to the earth
B A E F#
