

You Have A Home

Adam's Road

I know you've been through so much
How you search for a gentle touch
I know you cry most of the night
With hopes and dreams of a better life
You don't have to look so far

You have a home in Jesus
He has a love for you that never ends (1 Cor. 13:8)
You have a home in Jesus
You have a home, you have a home

You look for love to heal your wounds
You're tired of being left alone
You seek for shelter on those rainy days
Protection from the fear and pain
Your refuge from the storm (Isaiah 25:4)

You have a home in Jesus
He has a love for you that never ends
You have a home in Jesus

A roof of understanding, protects your broken heart
With walls of deep compassion, He never will be far
You have a home

When it feels like the whole world forsakes you it's not the end
Wait for the Lord, be strong, He'll take you in (Psalm 27:10, 14)

You have a home in Jesus
He has a love for you that never ends (1 Cor. 13:8)
You have a home in Jesus
Whoever you are wherever you've been

You have a home in Jesus, you have a home in Jesus
You have a home

© 2009-2011 Adam's Road