

Walk The Mountainside

Adam's Road

It seems like everything I know is crumbling out of place
On a shaky foundation I was based
How could all of this happen, I ask myself
Has my whole life been spent in vain?

Then I feel a soft voice calling out to me
Bringing me the peace I seek

“Do you know, do you know how much I love you?
Do you know how much I think of you?
I'd walk the mountainside, I'd leave the ninety-nine
In search of you my lost one, you are mine (Luke 15:4)
Do you see me? Do you know?”

There's a change inside, my life begins anew (2 Cor. 5:17)
And I find my very being in You (Acts 17:28)
I live and breathe every day, totally dependent on You (Acts 17:25)
To help me see this through

And in those times when I question Your grace
I close my eyes, and hold on to every word that You say

“Do you know, do you know how much I love you?
Do you know how much I think of you?
I'd walk the mountainside, I'd leave the ninety-nine
In search of you my lost one, you are mine (Luke 15:4)
Do you see me? Do you know?”

Neither death nor life, nor things present nor to come
Nothing can separate you from my love, from my love (Rom. 8:38-39)

“Do you know, do you know how much I love you?”

Do you know how much I think of you?
I'd walk the mountainside, I'd leave the ninety-nine
In search of you my lost one, you are mine (Luke 15:4)
Do you see me? Can you feel me? Don't you need me? Do you know?"
